

celebrating America's 250th birthday!

Say Semiquincentennial!

Saturday
November 15th from 11am to 3pm

Hear a presentation on Thomas Potts's Associator Battalion at 11am!

See a Revolutionary War cannon—cast at Warwick Furnace, once buried, now unearthed and on display at Pottsgrove Manor for this special event!

Experience the site come alive with costumed reenactors demonstrating daily camp life and drills!

Suggested donation, $2 per person

POTTSGROVE MANOR

100 W. King St.
Pottstown, PA 19464

610.326.4014

PottsgroveManor@
MontgomeryCountyPA.gov

Outside activities will be scaled down in the event of inclement weather.*

Pottsgrove Manor is owned and operated by the Montgomery County Division of Parks, Trails & Historic Sites
Montgomery County Board of Commissioners: Neil K. Makhija, Chair; Jamila H. Winder, Vice Chair; and Thomas DiBello, Commissioner.