

Fall 2026 events calendar

Premier community events in the Pottstown region

Ongoing Events

Association Day (Monthly Maker Days)

First Wednesday of the month, Sept. – Nov., 11am – 3pm, Pottsgrove Manor, 100 W. King St., Pottstown. We're spending the year reconstructing an Associator quilt. This unique artifact was originally constructed of homespun linen, block printed and then quilted by hand. Follow through the year as staff and volunteers use these same time-honored techniques to bring past into present.

Pottstown Farm

Remaining dates: 8/22, 9/5, 9/19, 10/3, & 10/17, 9am-12pm, Smith Family Plaza, 100 E. High St, Pottstown. Pottstown Farm and Artisan Regional Market brings fresh, locally grown, sourced, and creative products to Pottstown. For more info go to pottstownfarm.org.

Colebrookdale Railroad

Colebrookdale Railroad offers expeditions into the Secret Valley, one of the most scenic and historic regions in the northeast on restored, century-old rail cars. Visit www.colebrookdalerrailroad.com for special holiday tours like Autumn Splendor and Fall Foliage Tour.

Manatawny Green Miniature Golf

Seasonally through October. 71 W. High St., Pottstown. Pottstown's 18-hole miniature golf course has water features, a snack bar, and is next door to the Pottstown Carousel. ADA Accessible. For more information, see the Manatawny Green Facebook page.

September Events

Pottstown Nights Car Show

Saturday, September 5, 3pm – 9pm, High St., Pottstown. Last show of the 2026 season. Come out and enjoy some classic cars.

Lower Pottsgrove's Community Day

Saturday, September 12, 10am – 1pm Lower Pottsgrove Elementary School, 1329 Buchert Rd., Pottstown. Face-painting, a bounce house, food trucks, and even a petting zoo!

Pottstown Pet Fair

Saturday, September 12, 10am – 2pm, Memorial Park, 75 W. King St., Pottstown. Rescue pets, animal health and welfare organizations and pet-centered businesses. Petting zoos, local food trucks and a Blessing of the Animals service. Dogs, cats, llamas, alpacas, snakes, ferrets, cows, chickens, & goats. It's just a few bears short of a zoo!

Dr. Potts's Wartime Garden

Saturday, September 19, 11am – 3pm, Pottsgrove Manor, 100 W. King St., Pottstown. Dr. Jonathan Potts served in the Hospital Department of the Continental Army and helped his patients using a wartime garden. Join us for a day of exploring medicinal plants, wartime ailments, and the struggles of treating an army. Also stop by the interpretative station with Warwick Furnace Farm to take in the scent of lavender and take home your piece of herbal history!

Veteran's Island Community Day

Saturday, September 26, 10am, Veteran's Island at Memorial Park, 251 Manatawny St., Pottstown. Come out and honor the veterans of our Armed Forces who have made a difference in the community following their years of service. Sponsored by Veteran's Island Project.

October & November Events

Bump in the Night Lantern Tours

Friday, October 9, 6:30pm, 7pm, & 7:30pm, Pottsgrove Manor, 100 W. King St., Pottstown. As the threat of war lingers outside the door, history happens after dark with these special lantern tours. Join us as we investigate the creepiest corners and spookiest stairwells. Uncover how colonial America whittled away the darkest hours during the darkest hour. *Registration required

PARRC's Putt for Parks Mini-Golf Tournament

Saturday, October 3, 10:30 am, Manatawny Green, 71 W. High St., Pottstown. This is PARRC's 3rd annual Putt for Parks tournament. Support local parks with a round of miniature golf. Refreshments and prizes! In-person registration starts at 9:00am, or register online at parrc.net
